Student Transportation Completes Two Tuck-in Acquisitions

Toronto, ON – November 14, 2005 – Student Transportation of America, Ltd. (STA), (TSX: STB.UN) recently announced it has acquired two tuck-in acquisitions, Hudson Bus Lines, Inc. of Lewiston, Maine with 58 buses and Byrd Yeany Busing, Inc. of Mayport, Pennsylvania with 19 buses. The two companies have combined annual revenues of US$2.3 million. More than 80 per cent of the new revenue is fuel protected.

"Both acquisitions are located near existing STA operations, fit our strategy of increasing regional density and have long-standing contracts," said David White, President and Chief Operating Officer of STA.

The two acquisitions are expected to be immediately accretive.

Annual General Meeting

STA will hold its annual general meeting at 10:00 a.m. on Thursday, December 8, 2005 at The Gallery of the Toronto Stock Exchange Broadcast and Conference Centre, in The Exchange Tower at 130 King Street West in Toronto.

STA is the fifth largest provider of school bus transportation services in North America, conducting operations through local operating subsidiaries. STA has become a leading school bus transportation company by aggregating operations through the consolidation of existing providers and conversion of in-house operations, and currently operates more than 3,300 school vehicles in North America.
